Sweet Rural Land

Web ID: ROB

This rural property ticks all the boxes in regards to position, privacy, aspect and water. This gently sloping, quality land has aged apple gums sprinkled over it and is situated only 12 to 15 minutes from town with tar road access. The eastern boundary is defined by double frontage to the Bowman River. Power is to the western boundary and there is easy access to many building sites, which offer privacy with great outlooks. This outstanding parcel of land allows for country living surrounded by large rural holdings with the ability to run 5-8 steers or a few horses.
